CHART ROOM

For near on two centuries, we have looked to the stars to navigate sundown seas. Come dark, they shepherded our vessels through inky waters, lighting the way for a million voyages.

It's the allure and splendour of these celestial orbs that influence the Chart Room this evening.

Just like the night sky, the drinks and entertainment you will find emit their own distinctive quality for you to enjoy as we make our way ever-forward across the starlit seas.
